

GREEN HORIZONS

ECOBAM Inc.

A twelve story multi-purpose academic green building that will enhance NYU Tandon’s campus for students, staff, and the surrounding community to help feed the minds of future engineers.

MISSION STATEMENT

Combining innovative green technologies to minimize our environmental impact with the construction of safe, resilient, and energy-efficient structures.

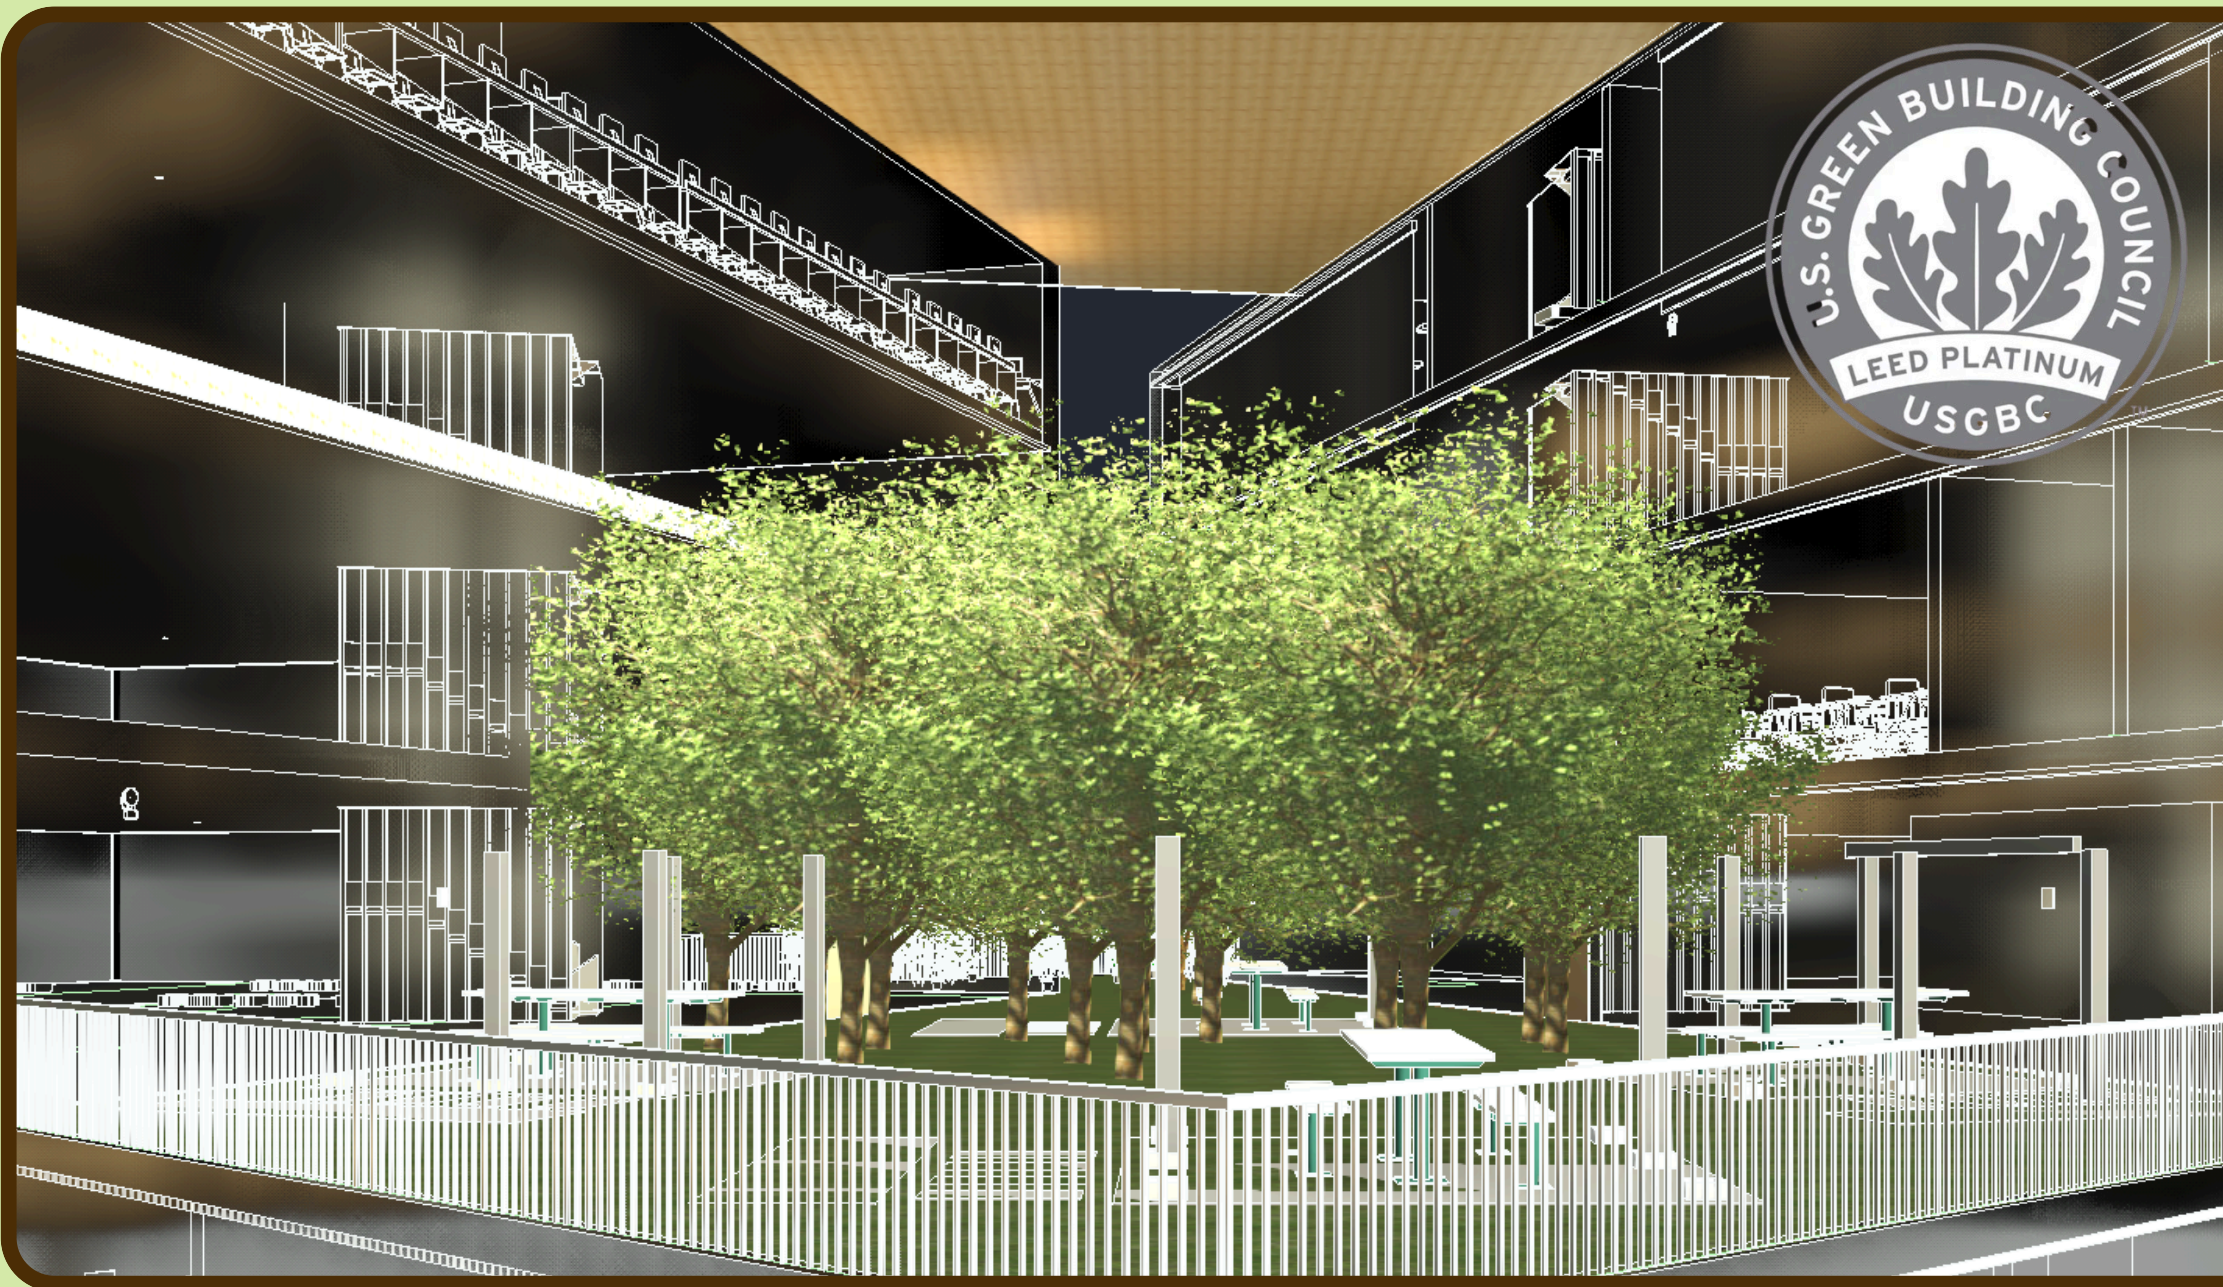

KEY FEATURES

- Ten 40-Student Classrooms
- Eight 20-Student Classrooms
- Two 100-Student Lecture Halls
- 100+ Student Dormitories
- Dining Hall and Dormitory Cafe
- Rooftop Green Space
- Movie Theater
- Computer Labs

LEED PLATINUM

- Location & Transportation: public cafe, public theater
- Disability Access: elevators, automatic doors, bike racks, electric vehicle charging stations, underground parking
- Sustainable Sites: rooftop green space with vegetation garden, trees and grassy area on rooftop and ground, motion sensors for lights
- Water Efficiency: salt water conversion fountain, rainwater catcher filter
- Energy & Atmosphere: window walls for natural light, communal fridges, communal washers, communal dryers, solar panels on roof
- Indoor Environmental Quality: automatic shaded windows
- Innovation: automatic facial recognition security systems

ABOUT US

Project Manager: Brooke Alsante
Chief Engineer: Abdul Alsulami
Construction Manager: Melody Chui

Passionate about combining artistic technique with sustainable development.